FOR SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION PRACTICUM
EDAD 5399/6399
INTRODUCTION: THE SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION PRACTICUM

The school administration practicum is considered to be the capstone experience of the program in educational administration at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. It should, therefore, be among the last in the sequence of courses taken. The practicum constitutes a one-semester experience with a project to be completed at the end of the practicum. Candidates enrolled in a 36 hour Master of Science in Educational Administration should complete at least 27 semester hours toward their principal’s certification before beginning the practicum. The practicum should be one of the last courses taken for students seeking only certification. The basic functions of this field-based course are to provide the student with the opportunity to (a) apply previously learned knowledge and skills to practical administrative tasks and (b) learn those aspects of school administration that can only be learned in field settings. The school administration practicum can be completed either in the fall semester or the spring semester of each academic year.

The purpose of this document is to explain how the practicum works, the program’s expectations and requirements, and to delineate the roles and relationships of the major parties involved in the practicum. These include Texas A&M - Corpus Christi, the school district, the supervising administrator, and the candidate.

The following step-by-step process is designed to guide and assist all parties in the practicum:

1. The candidate notifies the university’s practicum coordinator of his/her intention to enroll in the practicum. This notification must take place during the semester prior to the beginning of the practicum. Practicums are not offered in the summer.

2. The university coordinator checks the student’s degree/certification plan to ascertain the student’s eligibility for the practicum. To be eligible to register for the practicum, a student enrolled in the Master of Science in Educational Administration should have completed at least 27 semester hours toward the principal’s certification prior to the beginning of the practicum. The practicum should be one of the last courses taken for students seeking “only” certification. Students should see their advisor before enrolling,
3. The candidate is responsible for securing the principal’s signature on the permission forms. The supervising administrator is normally the principal of the school in which the candidate is employed; however, it is possible that the candidate might work with another administrator who holds another administrator position. In cases where the principal feels that the superintendent of schools should also approve, the candidate is responsible for obtaining that permission in writing on the approved application.

4. Candidates attend an orientation meeting at the university at the beginning of the practicum. This orientation includes a discussion of the obligations of the candidate and the development of the practicum proposal that is done in conjunction with the supervising principal.

Between the first class session and the first visit of the university supervisor, the candidate in conjunction with his/her supervising administrator develops a proposal for one major project and two mini-projects that are specifically related to the nine TExES Principal Competencies. These proposals will provide direction for the candidate. These proposals are to be developed with the input and assistance of the supervising field administrator and the university supervisor. These proposals should be designed to help candidates in fulfilling not only their own personal learning needs, but also school goals and tasks identified by the supervising administrator. As a result, the practicum experiences for each candidate will be different, based on the local context, the candidate’s needs and interests, and the supervising administrator’s needs for his/her school. The proposals should concentrate on significant, meaningful tasks that cause the candidate to integrate many smaller skills-based assignments into holistic projects and activities/experiences. A draft of these proposals must be turned in to both the supervising administrator and the university supervisor before the first site meeting that will be held at the candidate’s campus.

6. Early in the semester, the university supervisor will visit each candidate’s school and review the candidate’s proposals with the supervising administrator and the candidate. The proposals, which must be approved by all three parties, becomes the “backbone” of the practicum. The university supervisor, supervising administrator, and candidate will attest that the candidate proposals are appropriate and agreed upon by signing the appropriate form. However, the candidate and supervising administrator should capitalize on any other learning opportunities that present themselves, whether or not those are included in the proposals. In a sense, that proposals are a “living document” which may change with approval as opportunities present themselves.

7. The candidate begins work on the projects and activities/experiences set forth in the proposals and is available for administrative work whenever she/he is not meeting regular teaching responsibilities, including before and after school and conference periods. Work on proposal tasks may be pursued outside of school hours. This pattern of work continues throughout the semester until the projects and 160 hours of the practicum are completed.

8. The university supervisor visits the candidate and his/her supervising administrator during the semester. The first visit, as stated previously, is to review and agree on the proposals; the second and if needed, subsequent visits are to assess progress and make adjustments when needed; the final visit is an exit conference in which the university supervisor evaluates, with the supervising administrator and candidate, the candidate’s performance and progress toward meeting all obligations as stated in the proposal. The university supervisor assigns the final grade for the candidate. Other visits may be scheduled upon request by the university supervisor, the candidate, or the supervising administrator.

9. The number of required seminars held at the university will number no more than five, with one dedicated to orientation, one for TExES review, and one at the end to share candidate projects. The candidate is required to attend all five class meetings. In the event of an emergency the candidate is required to contact the professor. Additionally, the candidate will be given an extra assignment that will be due the week after the emergency. This additional assignment will require that the candidate to spend the time allotted to a class meeting to effectively complete the additional assignment. Seminars involve activities and assignments that comprise part of the grade given for the practicum. Failure to complete these activities and assignments may result in failure to complete the practicum.

10. Additionally, all students will be required to complete an practicum portfolio, and keep an practicum log of activities and experiences which will include (a) the date of the activity/experience, (b) a brief description of the activity/experience, (c) the code for each activity/experience, (d) a well-constructed and thoughtful monthly reflection on activities/experiences, (e) the amount of time spent on each activity/experience and (f) the total number of hours completed for the practicum.

ROLES AND RELATIONSHIPS

For the practicum experience to be productive for the student; the different parties must understand their respective roles and their relationships to one another. It is the responsibility of the university supervisor to assure that such understanding occurs. The following are descriptions of the roles of the parties involved in the practicum.

The University Supervisor:

1. Provides the general structure of the program and explains it to the candidate, the cooperating school district, and the supervising administrator.

2. Administers the program.

3. Serves as consultant to the candidate and supervising administrator in the development of the practicum experiences and works with them in evaluating the candidate’s growth and achievement.

4. Gives direction to the candidate seminars that occur during the academic year.

The Field Supervisor - School Principal (or designee):

1. Works with the university supervisors in establishing a framework for cooperation.

2. Serves as the immediate supervisor of the candidate.

3. Develops with the candidate and the university supervisor the proposal for the practicum. Many supervising administrators of candidates have found it useful for themselves and their candidates to first develop proposal projects and activities/experiences independently, then consolidate and reconcile their two sets of goals.

4. Uses the candidate in ways that contribute to (a) the candidate’s development and growth as an administrator and (b) the work of the supervising administrator and the school.

5. Serves as a mentor to the candidate by discussing administrative problems and his/her thinking about the issues.

6. Will be invited to attend the candidate’s presentation at the final candidate seminar.

7. Encourages the candidate to socialize him/herself into the profession through attendance at various meetings of school administrators.

8. Clarifies the candidate’s role to the faculty.

The Candidate:

1. Demonstrates a desire to take full advantage of the learning opportunities that are available in the practicum.

2. Keeps confidences.

3. Develops a proposal containing activities/experiences and a project for the practicum with the supervising administrator and university supervisor.

4. Is available to assist with tasks beyond those indicated by the proposal.

5. Allocates sufficient time to the practicum activities.

6. Socializes him/herself to the profession of school leadership through attendance at appropriate meetings.

7. Attends and participates fully in the practicum seminars.

8. Maintains a portfolio which includes, but is not limited to, daily logs of activities/experiences, the practicum project, materials that the candidate produces in the course of the practicum, and other materials valuable for future reference (i.e. schedules, memoranda, checklists, etc. which might be useful to the candidate upon assuming full-time administrative responsibilities).

9. Assumes responsibility for securing his/her portfolio from the university supervisor after it has been reviewed and the practicum is successfully completed.

10. Maintains a daily log of candidate activities/experiences.
PRACTICUM EXPECTATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

REQUIRED OBSERVATIONS

Observation 1:

This is a conference that includes your campus supervisor, you and me. Your campus supervisor will need a copy of the Practicum Handbook. We will review some pertinent information in the Handbook and sign the necessary paperwork. This conference must be held by Feb 9, 2018.

Observation 2:

This observation is an opportunity for me to “see you in action” as you speak to a group of adults, i.e. staff or parents. Examples of this observation might be leading a staff meeting or staff training, leading a meeting of parents, addressing the PTA or other parent organization or addressing parents at a Parents’ Night event. This must be completed by March 30, 2018.

Observation 3:

The last observation is a conference that again includes your campus supervisor, you and me. At this time, we will review your evaluation. You will want to make certain that your campus supervisor has a copy of the evaluation form that you will find in the Handbook. S/he will want to complete the evaluation form before the conference because it saves so much time and gives him/her “think time” for completion of the document. This must be completed by May 8, 2018.
